

WEBCOURSE

All Technion CS courses and student personal data in your one click

The Webcourse Mobile application makes it easy to browse all of the Technion Computer Science Faculty courses homepages on your smartphone and tablet. Webcourse Mobile also give you the availability to get updated with the latest events and news of the Computer Science faculty, to view information about all the courses given by the faculty and to manage your latest assignments and exams - all on your mobile device.

- View your current and past courses
- Track your assignments and grades
- View all the courses given by the CS faculty
- Get updated with latest events and news from the CS faculty
- Track your past grades and average